Mr. Aaron Gluck
Director of Purchasing
City of Fort Wayne
No. 1 Main Street
Fort Wayne, Indiana 46802

Dear Mr. Gluck:

Reference the Uniform Contract for the Fort Wayne Police Department.

We have chosen Badger Uniform Company for the following reasons:

Through numerous contacts with the Uniform personnel of our department, we have learned that the Badger uniform is of much better quality. The shirts are tailored to the individual officer whereas Uniform House sells directly to us from the shelf. Consequently, the Badger shirts fit much better and are worn more consistently. Shirts purchased from the Uniform House are hanging in closets and not used because of improper fit.

Another problem with Uniform House is very slow delivery of orders. It has been documented that it has taken as much as nine months to receive an order.

Also, there have been numerous errors in billing from Uniform House and this has created a lot of confusion within the department.

Further, we have also noticed that Uniform House does not conform to specifications, i.e., the Alcan hats and the car coats. The Alcan hats purchased from the Uniform House are totally worn out with minimal wearing. There have been numerous complaints that the materials are different colors, different shades of blue, that the trouser stripes do not conform as to color and the seams in the pants are not sewn properly. It has also been noticed by the officers that they receive approximately 50% longer wear from the Badger uniform.

We hope that the Purchasing Department and Council will see fit to take these items into consideration when awarding the uniform contract.

Sincerely,

Orville Roberts
